Six reasons to apply for The Mary Seacole programme

1. It’s highly relevant to actual situations and can be applied in the workplace

2. Feel more confident in your leadership skills

3. Increase your self-awareness and be more aware of your colleagues

4. Develop your leadership skills as well as your technical skills

5. Learn how to overcome cultural barriers

6. Make a real difference

The Mary Seacole programme is for clinical and non-clinical colleagues who are moving towards their first recognised leadership or team management role and want to do more to champion compassionate patient care.

It’s delivered through a combination of face to face and online learning to fit around the realities of our busy lives.
